

Miss Lapeer Days

Frequently Asked Questions

QUESTION: Do I need pageant experience to participate in Miss Lapeer Days Pageants?

ANSWER: NO EXPERIENCE IS NECESSARY! We will provide each contestant with the information and tools necessary to do well. Judging will be based on poise, personality and the ability to communicate with the Judges and audience.

QUESTION: Do I need to wear a pageant gown?

ANSWER: Although some girls will likely wear gowns, they are not necessary for the Miss Lapeer Days pageant. We recommend you wear an outfit that fits properly and is age appropriate. Just wear a dressy outfit that you would feel comfortable wearing to church or a fancy outing. Don't feel required to go out and buy a new dress for this pageant.

QUESTION: Can I wear make-up?

ANSWER: Miss Lapeer days is not a "Glitz" style pageant. We are looking for natural beauty, inside and out. No make-up is allowed for the Tiny Miss and Little Miss age division. No noticeable make-up for Junior Miss contestants and the Miss Division may wear age appropriate make-up.

QUESTION: Will the On-stage question be difficult to answer?

ANSWER: The On-stage question is designed to show how the potential queen would converse while representing Miss Lapeer Days. The questions are age appropriate; the judges are not looking for a speech or dissertation but try not to give one-word responses. It shouldn't take more than 10-20 seconds to answer the question.

QUESTION: Is the pageant like the show “Toddlers & Tiaras”?

ANSWER: Definitely Not!!! Miss Lapeer Days is not a Glitz or a Beauty Pageant. Therefore, it is not necessary or acceptable for children to show-up with over-the-top heavy make-up, fake teeth, etc. The Miss Lapeer Days pageant provides girls and young women with an opportunity to strengthen her public speaking skills, learn how to think on her feet, and practice the general grace and etiquette that is necessary for success in life. One can expect the Miss Lapeer Days participant to feel more confident that she can accomplish her goals after completing the pageant.

Question: How is the Division Queen selected?

ANSWER: Each contestant will participate and be scored in three required competition areas: (1) Poise, (2) Personality, (3) and the On-Stage question/communication. Each competition is 1/3 of the total score. The contestant with the highest total score will be named Miss Lapeer Days Queen for her division.

QUESTION: When is the deadline to register for the pageant?

ANSWER: The deadline to register for the Miss Lapeer Days pageant is July 17th.

Miss Lapeer Days Pageants is dedicated to the positive development of girls and young women through constructive and age appropriate competition. Participants learn life skills and make friendships they will keep with them for the rest of their lives. Most of all, IT'S FUN!!!
